

Name of memorial: Ardbraccan Great War Memorial

Inventory No. 836

Place: St. Mary's Church of Ireland

Address and map reference: St. Mary's Church of Ireland, Church Hill, Navan, Co. Meath.
Map reference: N 871 676. (Sheet
Co-ordinates: N 53.6518; W 6.6836.

Access: at times of services, or by appointment. Parking: adjacent street. Disabled access: yes.

Position: wall of nave.

Description and dimensions: Brass plaque on wooden mount. Height: appx. 45cms. Width: appx. 30cms.

Recorded by: Michael Pegum, 19th June, 2013.

Text:

(Crown, Royal Standard and Union Flag)
For King and Country.

In memory of the men of this parish* who gave their lives in the Great War 1914 - 1918

Joseph Ewart Lowry
aged 20 years
2nd. Lieut. Royal Irish Regiment killed in action at Bapaume 25. Aug. 1918

Thomas Percy Pettigrue
aged 25 years
1st British Columbia Regiment
missing Ypres 25. April 1915.

William Jenkins
aged 25 years
7th Leinster Regiment
killed in action near Locre 8. Mar. 1917.

William Reilly
aged 28 years
Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers killed in action at Hulse 15. Oct. 1918.

"Greater love hath no man than this"

All are mentioned in 'They Shall Grow Not Old', by Ethna Cantwell, 2018.

*St. Ultan's Church, Ardbraccan, Co. Meath, which was deconsecrated and closed in 1981.