

Name of memorial: Keogh Memorial

Inventory No. 215

Place: Garden on Milford Street

Address and map reference: Milford Street, Leighlinbridge, Co. Carlow. Map reference S 690 655

Position: In a garden on the west bank of the river, north of the bridge.

Description and dimensions: Panel in limestone rock. Panel height 61cms, width 77cms

Recorded by: Michael Pegum, 25 September, 2005.

Text:

Myles Walter Keogh
(1840-1876)

The Colonel from Leighlin who died in one of the greatest battles to grip the public imagination,
The Battle of the Little Big Horn or what became known as Custer's Last Stand.