

Name of memorial: Cork No. 1 Brigade Memorial

Inventory No. 443

Place: Midleton, Co. Cork

Address and map reference: Cemetery of Holy Rosary Church. Map reference: W 828 730.

Position: At the Republican Plot.

Description and dimensions: Limestone slab. Height 50cms, width 120 cms.

Recorded by: Michael Dolan, January, 2008.

Text:

(Left side)

THEY DIED THEIR LAND TO SAVE
+
In Proud and Loving Memory
Of the Volunteers of B. company, 4th Battalion
Cork Number 1 Brigade Irish Republican Army
Who were Killed in Action by British Crown Forces
At Clonmult on February 20th 1921
WILLIAM AHERN, JEREMIAH AHERN
DAVID DESMOND. MICHAEL DESMOND
DANIEL DENNEHY, MICHAEL HALLAHAN
JOHN JOSEPH JOYCE, JOSEPH MORRISSEY
CHRISTOPHER O'SULLIVAN
JAMES AHERN (interred in Cobh)
JAMES GLAVIN (interred in Cobh)
RICHARD HEGARTY (interred in Ballymacoda)
MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

(Right side)

THEY DIED THEIR LAND TO SAVE
+
In Proud and Loving Memory of
MAURICE MOORE & PATRICK O'SULLIVAN
Who were Executed in Cork Military Barracks
on May 5th 1921 (Interred in Cobh)
JOHN O'SHEA Who Died on March 23rd 1921
COLUMN COMMANDER WILLIAM BRANSFIELD
Who was Killed in Carrigwohill on May 8th, 1921
MICHAEL S. GEELAN Who died October 10th, 1921
DENIS RING Who Died November 10th 1920
COMMANDANT DIARMUID HURLEY O.C.
Killed at Carrigogna Midleton on May 28th 1921
(Interred in Second Adjoining Plot)
MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

As a memorial, it commemorates those whose names appear in heavy type above, and who are buried elsewhere. It marks the graves of the others.