

Name of memorial: Lane Window

Inventory No. 841

Place: St. Patrick's Church

Address and map reference: Main Street, Slane, Co. Meath. Map reference: O 960 742
Co-ordinates: N 53° 42.54', W 6° 32.76'

Access: at service times Parking: adjacent streets Disabled access: yes.

Position: wall of nave

Description and dimensions: stained-glass window: standing figure of a Major in battle-dress and steel helmet, holding the reins of a horse, and a sword. He wears the ribbon of the Military Cross. Behind him are three mounted soldiers, one a sergeant, holding a sword.

At lower left is the Military Cross, and at lower right the badge and motto of the 7th Dragoon Guards.

Height: appx. 350 cms. Width: appx. 300 cms

Recorded by: Michael Pegum, 19th June, 2013.

Text:

Pro patria

There is but a task for all

For each one life to give,

Who stands if freedom fall,

Who dies if England live.***

The subject is not identified, but it is clearly Major Charles Willington T. Lane, whose memorial is beside the window.

* Modified from the last four lines of "For all we have and are", by Rudyard Kipling.